

Save Buckman Pool!

The Parks 2002 Levy was supposed to keep Buckman Pool open. While the city has agreed to keep operating funds in the budget, they have not set aside money for the repair.

Keeping Buckman Pool open means repairing it when it is broken. A new community center is 7-10 years away, and we can't be without a pool that long. The city spent $2.87 million in levy funds to renovate and upgrade Wilson Pool in SW. Where is our share?

We need to tell City Council to step up to the plate. We have made it easy for you at:

www.buckmanu.org/savethepool

Save Buckman Pool!

The Parks 2002 Levy was supposed to keep Buckman Pool open. While the city has agreed to keep operating funds in the budget, they have not set aside money for the repair.

Keeping Buckman Pool open means repairing it when it is broken. A new community center is 7-10 years away, and we can't be without a pool that long. The city spent $2.87 million in levy funds to renovate and upgrade Wilson Pool in SW. Where is our share?

We need to tell City Council to step up to the plate. We have made it easy for you at:

www.buckmanu.org/savethepool

Save Buckman Pool!

The Parks 2002 Levy was supposed to keep Buckman Pool open. While the city has agreed to keep operating funds in the budget, they have not set aside money for the repair.

Keeping Buckman Pool open means repairing it when it is broken. A new community center is 7-10 years away, and we can't be without a pool that long. The city spent $2.87 million in levy funds to renovate and upgrade Wilson Pool in SW. Where is our share?

We need to tell City Council to step up to the plate. We have made it easy for you at:

www.buckmanu.org/savethepool

Save Buckman Pool!

The Parks 2002 Levy was supposed to keep Buckman Pool open. While the city has agreed to keep operating funds in the budget, they have not set aside money for the repair.

Keeping Buckman Pool open means repairing it when it is broken. A new community center is 7-10 years away, and we can't be without a pool that long. The city spent $2.87 million in levy funds to renovate and upgrade Wilson Pool in SW. Where is our share?

We need to tell City Council to step up to the plate. We have made it easy for you at:

www.buckmanu.org/savethepool